FINES :

A few for not welcoming Ralph and Mimi

50/50 DRAW :

Peter, the former archdeacon, draws the unlucky 666 – and of course does not win.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & CLUB BUSINESS

Barb makes some:

- Patsy Marshall is next year's Assistant District Governor, CONGRATS PATSY!!

- Empty your drawers on Wednesday mornings for Barb! This actually helps to end polio.

- Giant Yard sale coming up on May 8. ALL HANDS ON DECK

- read the Rotarian, Canada Edition and learn about EPN and our Prime Minister.

Patsy told us about the several letters of thanks we received because of the Dictionary program. Good stories! Great success Patsy!

PROGRAM:

Gregg Mitchell, chair of Ribfest this year, leads a reporting session on the progress of Ribfest Planning for this summer.

SPONSORS: Elisabeth and Paul encourage us all to get new sponsors.

Ribfest SURVEY: Liz led us through a report on the results of our in-house survey. Using her skill at developing great colourful graphics, Liz blitzed us with highly understandable information regarding our joys and inclinations resulting from our many years of volunteering. There was a lot of information that we will be digesting and learning from so that we can improve the overall volunteer experience.

Nancy reported on the discussions regarding a proposed three stream garbage system.

Ribbers are pretty well lined.

Beer is by Sleeman. Coolers by Vex. And same price as last year.

Entertainment is almost fully slotted.

Dave FM may be a broadcaster to get the word wider.

And finally – Ribfest is now on Facebook.

NEXT WEEK:

SAM'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Sam ran out of wisdom this morning. It all drained out through his left ear last night...
